

Sts. Joachim and Ann Care Service

Social Justice in Action presents

Free Event

Marti MacGibbon

speaking on Human Trafficking . . . a Global Tragedy

Educational, informative and enlightening speaker Marti MacGibbon shares her life experiences of drug addiction, homelessness and as a victim of human trafficking in Tokyo where she was held prisoner by Japanese organized crime. Her story, Human Trafficking: Victim to Triumphant Survivor, is a testimony to the power of the human spirit. Marti's high energy presentation speaks of overcoming adversity, addiction and recovery and inspires with humor and a genuine down-to-earth style. She offers simple, effective strategies that anyone can use to get back on track, build resiliency, reduce stress and cultivate a sense of humor.

Special Musical Performance by the Maryville University Gospel Choir

You're invited to see and hear Marti speak

Thursday, February 21 at 6:00 p.m.

Sts. Joachim and Ann Care Service - Celebration Room
4116 McClay Road St. Charles, MO 63304