

The Social Justice in Action Committee at Sts. Joachim and Ann Care Service

In recognition of Black History Month

Presents the first

CELEBRATION ROOM CONVERSATIONS ON HOUSING

with

Molly Metzger, PhD

George Warren Brown School of Social Work
Washington University

Molly Metzger, PhD serves as chair for the Domestic Social and Economic Development concentration within the Master of Social Work program at the Brown School, Washington University in St. Louis. She is also a faculty director at the Center for Social Development.

Dr. Metzger's research focuses on local, state and federal housing policies, examining how these policies often reproduce patterns of segregation. She strives to build and share research with a host of community partners, in order to move housing policy toward the goals of racial equity and economic justice.

Attend this dynamic presentation to learn and to understand the social and economic issues that have been impacting lives for decades. This will be a sociable way to build understanding and relationships. There will be a Q & A following the presentation.
